BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,

PHILIP HERRICK,

OF CLATSOP COUNTY.

Joint Session of Congress.

It is almost certain that there will be a summer session of Congress.

Indeed, members are already gathering at the Capitol, and by the 3d of July it is presumed that more than enough for a quorum will be present. The session will be very short. No other business is to be done than to interpret the Reconstruction laws so that the Attorney General and President cannot twist them to defeat the very purposes for which they were enacted.

The Board of Health.

The Council at its last session passed a resolution to give the Board of Health the usual discretionary powers, and this action will be followed by the passage of a new Health Ordinance, the old one being very defective and really conferring no powers whatever. There will now be no reason for neglect or delay in putting the Board in a good sanitary condition. It is to be hoped that the work will be done promptly and the Health Officer discharged as soon as possible, as the present state of the city finances does not admit of any needless salaries.

Surrender Trial.

The trial of JOHN H. SURREY at Washington is progressing slowly. To tell the truth, we have not felt sufficient interest in it to make a pretense of reading the testimony, voluminous reports of which are telegraphed daily. From condemned statements of more industrious and unfortunate news editors, who are compelled to wade through every lengthy report and then "boil down" the substance into the limits of a paragraph, we gather that it has been proved by unimpeachable testimony that the accused was in Washington on the day of the assassination; which seems to be unexpected to the friends of the conspiracy, who assumed that no such evidence would be adduced, and that, therefore, his acquittal was certain.

The Question of Salaries.

Some members of the Council seem disposed to "go back" to their record at last week's regular meeting, in the matter of salaries and salaries of ficers. The action of the Council at that meeting met with the approval of the majority of citizens of both parties, and the city croakers were a few democratic petty office seekers and their political friends. The salaries recommended are respectable and quite as large as the city can afford to pay in its present financial condition; and the community is not so infatuated with soundness as to need the services of two Marshals and three Constables, be-

THE RIVERMAN, the handsome face of the Atlantic Monthly appears again in

The County Fair.

It is not too soon to commence making preparations for the next annual exhibition of the products of the farm, garden and workshop of our county.

Three months soon roll around, but it affords time for those who expect to be competitors for the prizes—and we trust this class includes about everybody—to lay their plans and decide upon the articles they will take to the Fair. With such a bountiful harvest as we now have the promise of the display of field crops, fruits and vegetables should exceed that of any former years; and our mechanics and manufacturers, as well as the ladies, ought to make a splendid showing of articles in their respective classes. We have magnificent Fair Grounds, good buildings and ample accommodations for stock; the officers of the Society are interested in their work and energetic in its prosecution, and there is no reason why we should not have a grand old County Fair next October.

The Ticket and the Platform.

The Union press of the State is unanimous and emphatic in its approval of the Ticket and Platform. The most complete satisfaction has been given. There are no heart-burnings, or fault-finding, with either the Platform or the Ticket to mar the unanimity with which the Union party goes into this campaign. The situation is therefore favorable for work; and work must be done steadily from now till election. The State Central Commission have no doubt arranged the general plan of the campaign, and made provision for a sweeping canvass of the State. We have an unimpeachable Ticket and a terse, outspoken Declaration of Principles to aid us in the party of progress and reform, in effecting the enfranchisement of all men, whatever race or color. With such an interest at stake, we are required to do our best to secure that result.

The Making of a Register.

Many of our exchanges are indulging in the harmless amusement of President making, in the dearth of other news which prevails. We propose to try our hand, and give our readers a few pages of the "making of a register."
